Subject (in full) Mr. Peters Rusêns, Latvian Consul in Shanghai.

Made by / and Forwarded by D. S. I. Duncan.

Sir,

With reference to attached, Mr. Peters Rusêns, Latvian, arrived in Shanghai some three or four months ago and took up residence at the Palace Hotel.

A few days after his arrival here he called on Mr. Long, Secretary of the Consular Body, and stated that he was the new Latvian Consul. However, as Latvia has not treaty with the National Government, Mr. Rusêns has not been recognised by the Consular Body or by the Chinese Authorities.

Mr. Long informed me that he was making further enquiries regarding Mr. Rusêns' claim and would inform me of the result in due course.

Mr. Von Knorring, Acting Consul General for Finland, is meantime officially in charge of Latvian interests.
